

SUDBURY'S LARGEST YARD & SIDEWALK SALE

JoAnne and Lori had some impressive Shadow Boxes for sale

George, Gerri and Moe enjoyed selling their found treasures

Sudbury's Largest Yard & Sidewalk Sale was more than just a drive-by event. On Larch Street, between Elgin & Durham Streets, you could find more than 70 tables of treasures... new, used, crafts and one-of-a-kind. HOT93.5 and Rewind 103.9 were there to keep things hopping, and there was live music, face painting and a balloon clown, as well as a sidewalk sale from participating downtown merchants. Downtown Rotary Blues for Food's marked its 20th Anniversary in 2010! This community event raises much needed (and appreciated) dollars and non-perishable food items for the Sudbury Food Bank and its 40 agencies. This year's premiere blues & family festival featured the usual fun mix of live music concerts, children's performers and activities, a BBQ, refreshment tent and a great party, all on Durham Street Downtown! Free parking was available at all municipal lots and meters, and admission took the form of non-perishable food items and/or cash donations. You have to be there for the next one! Google them right now for more info. (More great photos at snapsudbury.com... wish we could print them all!)

FROMAGERIE ELGIN

FROMAGERIE ELGIN, Sudbury's world-class cheese specialty store, is located directly across from Market Square, right downtown. The shop showcases French and small production Québec and Ontario artisan cheeses, along with meats, olives, balsamic vinegars and other foods with a provençal flavour. After completing a degree in anthropology, then living abroad in Japan and France, owner Hazel Ecclestone, worked in speciality food and gourmet sales for many years in Toronto. She then opened a successful cheese store on Toronto's College Street and finally, brought her expertise to Northern Ontario. The shop is set with long wooden tables that sit many guests. The place is like a speakeasy with light lunches, including cheese plates, soups, baked goods, truffles and desserts. It's fully licensed with a selection of wines and beers. Local artists showcase their work on a rotating monthly basis. Sarah King Gold frequently curates these shows. You can buy the art, or just admire it as you relax with one of Sudbury's best cups of espresso, cappucino, or steeped tea. Artists groups, writers, authors meet there on a regular basis. Derek, Hazel's co-worker is also into cinematic/fine arts and hosts a film club of alternative cinema not found elsewhere. Events can be catered at the fromagerie or at your location. Open seven days a week, the Fromagerie Elgin endeavours to provide a unique and refreshing respite from our over-franchised, homogenous and oftentimes monotonous food culture. Please, come and see for yourself!
