

THE UPCOMING 2011 FALL FASHION SCENE

by: Helen Florentis & Tanya Charles

We've just returned from the LA Market in Los Angeles, California, an unmatched marketplace for the fashion industry, showcasing thousands of premiere design houses, hot emerging designers and renowned brands for men, women and children. Here's what we found out!

Helen & Tanya, in L.A. with Lindsay (Ctr.), rep. for Nicole Miller

What You Can Expect for Fall 2011

For the fall, winter and holiday season, you can expect to see plenty of animal prints. They featured prominently in every designer collection. With a nod to the late 70's and 80's, sequins and lamé are also back in full swing. Lace was also strong in all collections, from details to lace pants and dresses.

While the fabrics are full of detail, the silhouettes are a little less complicated, again bringing us back to the 70's look and feel. The bohemian yet sophisticated glamour of this period is definitely back. High-waisted pants and elegant blouses will be a great anytime look. Fur, both faux and real, will be trendy. Skinny jeans will still be popular, but for those on the cutting edge of fashion, bell-bottoms and flares are a must. The overall look is leaning toward the sophisticated as opposed to the overly sexy.

Sudbury Has It All for Fall 2011

While in L.A. we also visited some of the trendiest stores and can truly say that the styles offered to Sudbury are some of the hottest in the market today. That includes the whimsical "Blondes Make Better T-Shirts" line, where the design of each tee is unique, fun and a conceptual play on "blonde-ness." They're smart too, using only 100% sustainable, sweatshop-free and ethically responsible fabrics. Glitzy Bella hats, embellished with Swarovski crystals and Mary Francis handbags, each one being a truly unique piece of art will also be hot items, and there's so much more. It's going to be an exciting season!

Helen Florentis & Tanya Charles are the owners of sixtysix, a store with sophisticated chic, driven by big city style! 66 Cedar St, 705-586-3266.

YOU'VE BEEN SNAP'D DOWNTOWN

If this is you...

You've just won a $50 Downtown dollars.

Call Maureen at 705-674-5115 to claim your prize.

Must be claimed by the end of this month.

SIXTYSIX CELEBRATES ONE YEAR

Tanya Charles and Helen Florentis, owners of sixtysix, are excited to be celebrating one year in business, offering Sudbury a stylish and classy shopping experience. They are thrilled to celebrate this anniversary with the opening of a temporary outlet store for bargain hunters - sixtysix Last Call Weekends. Located at 116 Durham Street (next to Frank's Deli) and only open on weekends and only for a limited time, the outlet store is offering all 2010 summer, fall and winter stock at drastically reduced prices.

Event by Dana Comacchio
Event code: pe9yfm

Tanya, at sixtysix Last Call Weekends (116 Durham Street), only open on weekends and only for a limited time.

LIVE IT.

El Mercado
GIFTS & HOME DECOR

WEDNESDAY, 2:00 PM.
Melissa brings her mom along to register her wedding at El Mercado's Wedding Registry.

El Mercado, 86 Durham Street, 705-675-3082

WORK IT.

little MONTREAL

FRIDAY AT NOON.
Don catches a break with the guys for lunch.

Little Montreal, 182 Elgin Street, 705-675-8562

SHOP IT.

SIXTYSIX

SATURDAY, 11:00 AM.
The girls shop for the latest fashion trends at sixtysix.

sixtysix, 66 Cedar Street, 705-586-3266

BLUES FOR FOOD #21

Twenty-one times now (since 1990), the Annual Downtown Rotary Blues For Food turned Durham St. into Sudbury's premiere street-festival-style blues & family event. Downtown was full of live music, children's activities, entertainment, BBQ, refreshment tents and much more, all in support of the Sudbury Food Bank. To date, well over $350,000 and over 100 tons of food items have been raised. Google it and be there next year! (More photos at snapsudbury.com. Wish we could print them all!)

Event by Emily Brisson and SNAP Sudbury
Event code: pe9yfm

Rick (Rotary) & Maureen (Downtown Sudbury), love'n' the gorgeous weather

These brothers-in-law were chatting it up & loving the talent on stage.

Sebastian enjoyed the music & sunshine with Mom & Dad

Sudbury food bank volunteers were busy packing the trucks

Kathlyn was pretty excited to be SNAP'd with EZ Rock's Jillian

Nicholas, Francine, Jerry & Wyatt, cool in the shade & enjoying the music

SUDBURY'S LARGEST YARD & SIDEWALK SALE

A weekend downtown didn't stop our Downtown's 2011 Annual "Sudbury's Largest Yard & Sidewalk Sale." Every year, this huge community event, held on Larch St. between Elgin & Durham, attracts hundreds of people to the downtown core, looking for great buys, unique gifts, fun, food, gadgets, antiques and live music. Be a part of it next year! www.downtownsudbury.com (More photos at snapsudbury.com)

Event by Emily Brisson and SNAP Sudbury
Event code: pe8t88

Mary & Katharine (Perogy Princesses), were offering homemade preserves

Gerry's Woodwork (Chelmsford), were waterproof and ready

TASTES OF OUR TOWN LITTLE MONTREAL

by: SNAP Sudbury

You'll feel right at home as soon as you walk through the door. Little Montreal, a little Bar & Deli at 182 Elgin Street in downtown Sudbury's 'arty' section, is a little/big place that offers a little of this, a little of that and a whole lot of 'relaxed.' Everything from the cool paintings on the wall, to the surprisingly comfy chairs, to the sit-down bar lets you know that this is a place where you can 'hang.'

We were there on a Friday night, and we loved the great collection of 'just plain folks' around us. We went for the signature dish (smoked meat on rye), with one side-dish option each, a pasta salad and a soup. We wetted our whiskies with a red and a white wine. When the food came, we were impressed. The sandwiches were piled high with the good stuff and had a nice heft when picked up. The soup was hearty and delicious and the pasta salad was cool and spicy. Great! When we were done, relaxation had definitely set in.

Now, after five years, Little Montreal is known locally for their famous Montreal Smoked Meat sandwiches and arguably the best Rubens in town. They also offer a variety of homemade soups, sandwiches, salads, panini, pizzas, wraps and much more. Plus, you can choose from 7 kinds of mustard, horish radish, and other condiments. As if that weren't enough, they have a great bar! Not bad for a little deli.

Owners Beverley Byard and Mark Cormack, with years of experience in the service industry, take pride in their menu. They may not have "Chefs," yet their food is always prepared and made with a caring, unique and tasty flair. They and the service staff cook all the items in the menu. Everyone on staff is fully trained to do every job in the place and they alternate stations; cooking, tending bar, serving, bussing, whatever it takes to satisfy the customer. Handy.

We had a great time at Little Montreal and we'll be back. Thanks!

To Note and Watch For: Celebrate Canada Day with them. They'll have a BBQ outside and entertainment inside! Open acoustic Thursdays; Local comedians; Monthly Saturday Jazz; Special concerts beginning in July; and much more! Stay in touch for details.

Little Montreal Bar & Deli, 182 Elgin St, Sudbury, Ontario, P3E 3N5, 705-675-8562; littlemontreal@bellnet.ca
Open for lunch, dinner, special events, parties, fundraisers, catered occasions. They can do it all.

Angel was on 'deli duty' and prepared the food beautifully

Even the colourful murals help one relax

Jasmine was serving & bantening this time and made sure we had some laughs too

Now that's a sandwich!

The hearty and satisfying Smoked Meat with Pasta salad

The deli counter had everything... and dessert!

Summer in the City

Live it. Work it. Shop it.

The magic that attracts us to famous downtown streets is taking root in Sudbury. Downtown Sudbury, representing over 400 Downtown Businesses & Services is a hotbed of heritage, commerce, shopping, entertainment and cultural activities. Come for a unique and authentic consumer escape and experience the changes in our Downtown.

What's Happening in 2011:

- Market Square ... local products and produce
- Downtown Information Centre ... open weekends at Market Square
- Downtown Rotary Blues For Food ... 21st Annual - June 18th
- Blueberry Festival ... July
- Downtown Ribfest ... 4th Annual ... Labour Day Weekend - Sept. 2nd - 4th
- Enjoy the Season! ... at our many Outdoor Cafés